

Appealing Your Property Tax

to the County Board of Equalization

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

If you disagree with the county assessor's valuation of your property, you have the right to appeal. This publication provides an overview of the Board of Equalization's property tax appeal process.

PROPERTY VALUATION METHODS

State law requires assessors to value all taxable property at 100 percent of its true and fair market value in money according to the highest and best use of the property. Market value is the amount of money that a willing and unobligated buyer is willing to pay a willing and unobligated seller.

The county assessor values real property using one or more acceptable appraisal methods:

- Market or sales comparison
- Cost approach
- Income capitalization approach for income producing property
- Combination of the three approaches above

ASSESSOR DETERMINES ASSESSED VALUE

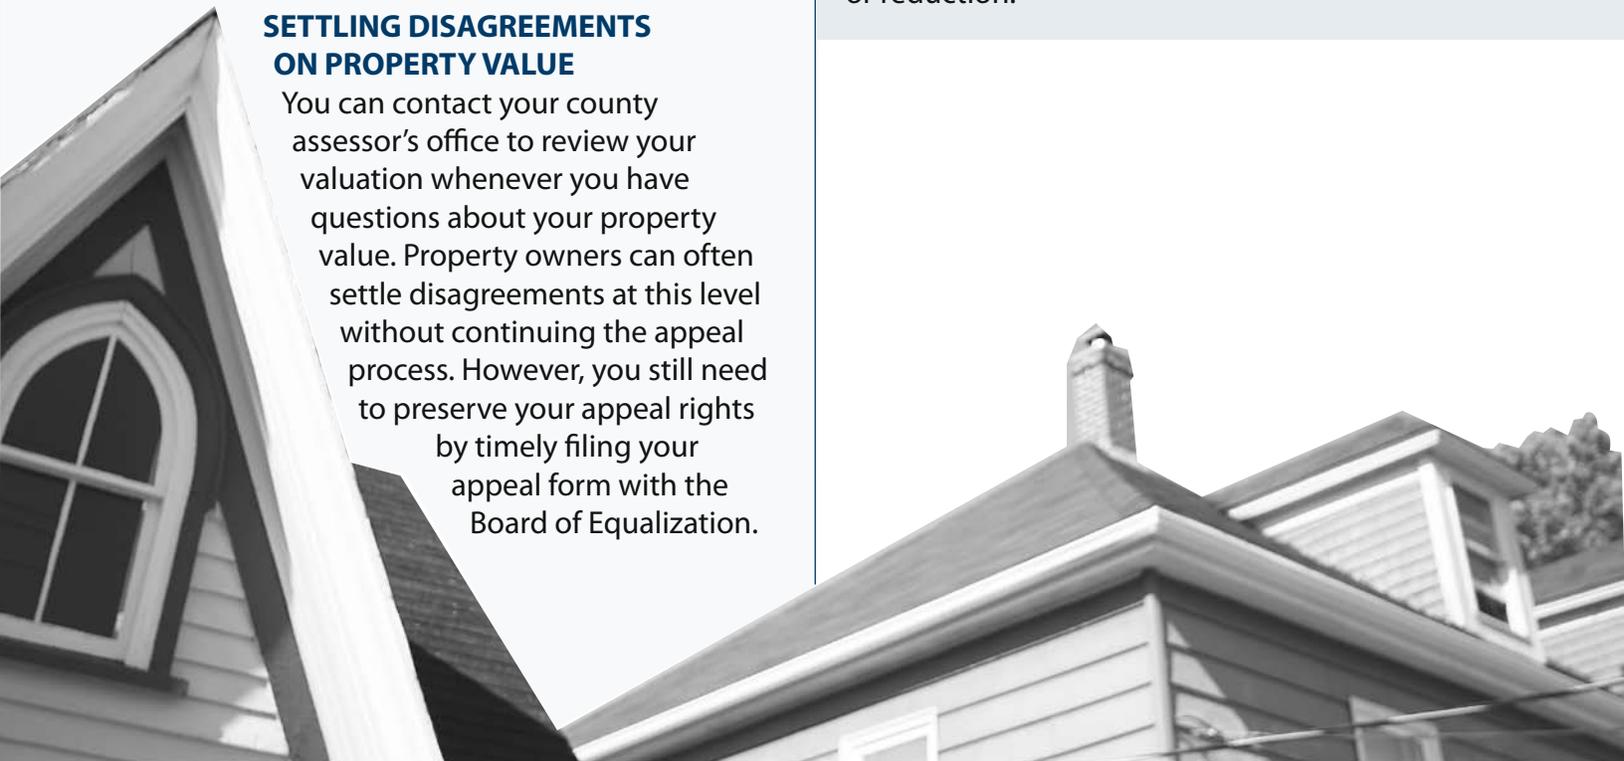

The county assessor determines the assessed value of your property. A Change of Value Notice is sent to you when the assessed value of your property changes. The notice indicates the assessed value of your land and improvements. Real property must be reassessed at least once every four years.

APPRAISED VS. ASSESSED VALUE

Appraised value is the market value or the amount of money a buyer is willing to pay a seller for a property. Assessed value is the value on which your property taxes are based. This amount may be less than the appraised value if you are receiving any type of exemption or reduction.

SETTLING DISAGREEMENTS ON PROPERTY VALUE

You can contact your county assessor's office to review your valuation whenever you have questions about your property value. Property owners can often settle disagreements at this level without continuing the appeal process. However, you still need to preserve your appeal rights by timely filing your appeal form with the Board of Equalization.

FILING AN APPEAL

To file an appeal against an assessor's property valuation, you must complete a Board of Equalization appeal form in the county where the property is located. A letter or phone call will not be accepted as a substitute for the appeal form. Filing for an appeal is free.

Only the taxpayer or entity whose name and address shows on the assessment roll, or their duly authorized agent, or the property owner may file an appeal.

APPEAL FORMS

Appeal forms are available at:

- Department of Revenue's web site (<http://dor.wa.gov>)
- Local county Board of Equalization where property is located
- Local county assessor's office

FILING DEADLINE

The deadline for filing an appeal is the latter of:

- July 1 of the assessment year; or
- Within 30 days* of when the Change of Value Notice was mailed by the assessor's office

For example: You received your Change of Value Notice on March 1. The deadline for filing an appeal would be March 31.

If you mail your appeal form, it must be postmarked by midnight of the deadline. You may hand deliver the appeal form to your county Board of Equalization and have it date stamped.

* Certain counties extend the filing deadline to 60 days. Please check with your county Board of Equalization for your filing deadline.

EXCEPTION TO FILING DEADLINE

If you did not receive a Change of Value Notice at least 15 calendar days prior to the deadline for filing an appeal for the current assessment year and you can show proof that the value was changed, you may submit a sworn affidavit. The affidavit should state that you did not receive a Change of Value Notice 15 calendar days prior to the appeal deadline.

The sworn affidavit and appeal form must be submitted to the clerk of the Board of Equalization by April 30 of the following year. Submitting the sworn affidavit and appeal form allows the Board to reconvene to hear your appeal.

Note: The county assessor is required to send the Change of Value Notice to the taxpayer whose name and address appears on the assessment roll. The taxpayer is responsible for:

- Notifying the county assessor of any address change
- Requesting copies of the notices from the assessor, mortgage or lending company

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN APPEAL

An appeal form must include specific reasons why you believe the assessor's valuation is incorrect. Statements that the assessor's valuation is too high or property taxes are excessive are not sufficient. You must be specific as to why the assessed value does not reflect market value.

Examples might include:

- Recent appraisal of your property
- Excessive deterioration of your property
- Sales of similar properties reflecting a lower value for your property

You may also note other issues relevant to your case such as a comparison of your assessment relative to assessments of other properties, the percentage of the assessment increase, or other issues of uniformity.

Any adjustments to the value of your property or other properties will be based on market value evidence, including:

- Parcel number of the property you are appealing
- County assessor's determination of value
- Your estimate of value
- Comparable sales or other supporting evidence you wish to include
- Indication if you intend to submit additional evidence prior to the hearing

Additional information must be provided at least seven business days prior to your hearing date with the Board of Equalization.

LISTING COMPARABLE SALES

You can get comparable sales information from records at the county assessor's office, realtors or title companies. You should use property sales that are most comparable to your property, and which sold closest to the assessment or appraisal of your property. The best sales comparisons are sales of your property or similar properties in your area or neighborhood. For each comparable sale you use, make sure to include the parcel or account number, property address, date of sale, sale price and comparable property characteristics.

Comparable characteristics to consider are:

LAND

- Location (sales in the same subdivision or neighborhood)
- Unit of comparison (lot size, acreage, square feet and front feet)
- Desirable features such as a view or waterfront
- Sewer/septic systems
- Undesirable features such as an access problem
- Wetlands
- Water systems
- Zoning

IMPROVEMENTS

- Type of construction (wood frame, brick or other)
- Square footage of total finished living area
- Year built
- Number of stories
- Improvement type and grade
- Building condition
- Number of bedrooms and bathrooms
- Fireplace
- Garage/carport

OTHER SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

- A map showing the location of your property and comparable sales properties
- Appraisals prepared by others
- Documentation by others concerning problems
- Written estimates of the cost to repair problems
- Photographs

TRUE AND FAIR VALUE

The county Board of Equalization determines if all properties are assessed at their true and fair value. Equalization issues brought before the county Board of Equalization may result in changes in value of all properties involved.

HEARING PROCESS

The clerk of the Board of Equalization will notify you about the date, location and time of your scheduled hearing.

The hearing is an informal review that allows property owners to represent themselves without an attorney. Both you and the county assessor will give oral testimony and written evidence to support the value. You may cross examine each other and rebut evidence.

Keep in mind the county assessor, by law, is presumed to be correct. The burden of proof is on you, the taxpayer, to show that the assessed value is not correct. You must present clear and convincing evidence to support your estimate of market value.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION DECISION

Usually, the Board of Equalization issues a written decision within 30 to 60 days of the hearing. The board can either raise, lower or sustain the county assessor's value.

APPEALING THE COUNTY BOARD'S DECISION

You may appeal the county board's decision to the state Board of Tax Appeals. Your appeal must be filed with the state Board within 30 calendar days of the postmarked date of the county Board's decision. You may also pay your taxes under protest and petition the Superior Court for a refund by filing a lawsuit (Revised Code of Washington (RCW) Chapter 84.68).

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. If I don't file my appeal by the deadline, will the county Board of Equalization consider my appeal?

A. There are limited reasons the board would reconvene to consider an appeal if the appeal was not filed by the deadline.

For example: A new purchaser bought property after July 1 and before December 31 of the assessment year, and the sale price was less than 90 percent of the assessed value. The deadline for requesting the board to reconvene is generally April 30 following the assessment year. In the event of 100 percent over valuation, a board may reconvene up to three years after their regular session. Contact you county Board of Equalization for more information

Q. When should I pay my property taxes, before or after the hearing?

A. You should pay your property taxes when they are due. After your hearing, when the Board of Equalization has made their decision, the county treasurer will notify you of any adjustment to your taxes.
